

The Franklin County Ohio Amateur Radio Emergency Service group is suspending classes for General Class license candidates until further notice. Due to the Covid-19 stay at home orders, no classes may be held. If conditions have improved by the Fall, classes may be offered again. Until then please observe safe social distancing and other precautions to protect yourself and others. We truly are all in this together.