

is message with your amateur radio volunteer groups, especially those who support and county emergency management agencies.

Qualification to the Auxiliary Communicator (AUXC) standard, including an Ohio-um, is being offered for volunteer radio operators who support their community and state agencies. Training will be at Haubrich Armory in Columbus, running from approximately 1500 on the first Saturday of the months of December through April.

on qualification that emphasizes putting theory and technology to work in operation. combination of classroom, laboratory, and field training, AUXC trainees will learn information theory, information processing technology, and procedures needed to on and work in Ohio's statewide AUXCOMM HF network on behalf of an agency nse or recovery aid to our communities.

ed for invitation to this qualification course, you must complete the registration before limited number of seats is available to civilian volunteers, so early registration is The first training date is Saturday, 2 December 2023.

LINE! <https://www.blackswancomex.org/net/auxc>

tin KD8TTE

m/kd8tte

tube.com/KD8TTE